Description

Property console, in solid cherry wood, topped with an original Sainte-Anne des Pyrénées marble. The apron conceals a compartmentalized drawer with a double ogee on the front and on the returns. The front pillars cross upwards, positioned at an angle, are refined at the bottom to end with a so-called "barrel" element. The rear uprights are simply straight and rectangular in section. These elements are mounted on a base, with concave visible faces, this one rests on small slab feet at the front and plate at the back. You will be charmed by the curves of this small console table and the warm color of its cherry wood.  Period: 1st part of the 19th century Excellent condition. Shipping possible with careful packaging and appropriate protection. Maximum dimensions: Width: 95.5
