Description

We present for sale this neo Renaissance credenza in walnut on a perforated base from the end of the 19th century. On the buffet part (top) the pediment is carved with chimera, on both sides and in the center of the heads of characters. Three whole characters, two of which are caryatids, giving the impression of supporting the upper part of the piece of furniture. On each door sculptures in the round. Walnut base, sculpted panels on the back part. (E23)
