Description

Vintage lamp in gilded lucite brass and plexiglass from the 60s and 70s representing a horse's head with the appearance of glass. Very nice decorative effect for this nice size lamp, height 71 at the top of the lampshade, diffusing a soft and pleasant light. Double light, only one on in the photos. Note the excellent condition of the whole, both for the sculpture and for the plexiglass base which has kept all its beautiful original condition. Possibility of sending in France and all over the world.
