Description

Large bust on pedestal 48 cm high signed G.Levy (1820-1899). Signature in blue of the porcelain factory, some cooking cracks but no breakage, crack or restoration. This biscuit bust represents a romantic young girl with an asymmetrical crown of daisies and a picturesque braid on the shoulder. The gaze lowered with a gentle modesty goes towards a flower, she wears a wide neckline. Shoulders of different sizes, a knot and a balancing braid, a classic ribbon and an impressionist freedom of a crown. The main subject of the work is the question who will get this flower
