Description

LEVERE Paul (1875-1949)

"The fisherman's terrace"

Oil on panel,
Signed lower right,

Beautiful luminous work by the Toulon painter Paul Levéré which represents the terrace of a fisherman by the sea. The artist was able to transcribe perfectly the light and colors of the Mediterranean and the South of France with a bright and contrasting palette.

A pupil of Charles Allard, Paul Levéré painted landscapes of Provence and the Riviera. He occupies a workshop close to the painter François
