Description

Elegant four-door sideboard - mid-century credenza, attributed to Vittorio Dassi, Italy.(Vittorio Dassi 1893-1973)Sycamore solid wood lacquered in high gloss black, the top of the furniture is protected with a loose laid black glass top and you can easily slide back and forth all the objects that are decorated on it.The interior of the furniture is bright and friendly - matte lacquer. The keys, key guide and foot cuffs are made of solid brass. Particularly noteworthy is the oval, tall shape of the keys that elegantly fit the tall shape of the body.The front has a double arch - the separately applied side panels and the top plate also pick up this arch.The profiling can be seen on the legs, around the doors and on the key.The furniture has a very high quality finish and is in line with the lines of Vittorio
