Description

Old plate on which pieces of old 18 and 19th century crockery have been fixed like a mosaic. The "Picplate" house, a naive and raw work of art by Raymond Isidore in Chartres, has influenced many creators, including the potter BERTOUX in Cluny, by his technique. The term "Picplate" comes from the nickname given to the creator "the Picasso of the plate". His house was classified as a historic monument in 1983.
