Description

"Smoke" - "Little Albert" armchair by Ron Arad in polyethylene hand-decorated with black lines and lacquered, signed Amane. One-piece seat and back form a flat base. The "Little Albert" armchair - one of the designer's most important and emblematic pieces - has a highly original graphic presence, with its tonic, contemporary lines and the geometric purity of its structure. This unique design piece features a modern painted and lacquered black and white decor. This unique piece, with its contemporary design and pure curves, is entirely hand-decorated. Extremely light and resistant, it can be moved from living room to terrace, indoors or out. The oval opening in the backrest makes it easy to handle. Structure in polyester resin reinforced with a steel support. This unique piece is the
