Description

Glass paste sculpture by René Lalique in art deco style representing Leda and the swan. Very pretty sculpture in excellent condition, signed on the Lalique France base, known and listed by this famous house which marked the decorative arts of the early 20th century by its style. Interesting work, all in the finesse of the glass with an alternation of masts and brilliants giving depth and relief to this very pretty sculpture. Possibility of sending in France and all over the world.
