Description

Very beautiful living room table in cube marquetry from the 18th century in the transition style. The marquetry is made of rosewood, satin and tinted sicomore. The table has a side drawer, as well as two front drawers and a shelf lined with wheel-engraved full-grain red leather. The table is surmounted by a gray Belgian marble and surrounded by a bronze gallery. This piece of furniture has been completely restored in the old fashioned way and varnished with a buffer.
