Description

Pair of vintage lamps in brushed steel from the 1950s and 1960s. Very nice pair of adjustable lamps attributable to Alain Richard born in 1926, famous designer of lighting, in particular with this clamp height adjustment system very particular to this artist. Very good general condition and electrical functioning for this pair which will give a touch of modernity and refinement to a classic or contemporary interior. Possibility of sending in France and all over the world with secure package.
