Description

Beautiful refined garden fountain with statue in neoclassical style, circa 1930s main material mixed with grit marble dust and cement. This beautiful and majestic fountain is made up of two basins arranged on two floors. Three large fish support the small shell-shaped upper basin. At the top, the fountain ends with a rocky decoration on the tip of which you can see a refined lotus flower. The large basin at the base is supported by fantastic lion paws. The fountain shows signs of the passage of time but there are no breakages to report. This fountain is perfect for embellishing an important garden.
