Description

Series of three Chinese polychrome porcelain vases, 19th century, Qing dynasty. Very nice set of vases decorated with court scenes embellished on the back with poetic inscriptions. Note the excellent condition of the set for this series which remained together for nearly two centuries. Possibility of sale in pairs for the two with similar decor or individually for the third. Nice size 42 cm allowing to position these vases on a chest of drawers or a console thus creating a very beautiful decoration. Shipping possible in France and worldwide.
