Description

Beautiful desk, Vienna 1810-20, in the style of Josef Danhauser, walnut veneer. The hexagonal legs have a beautiful herringbone veneer pattern. The top is distinguished by its root veneer grain. The desk is refurbished with a shellac hand varnish. The design of this unique table definitely shows the influence of the famous Austrian Biedermeier furniture designer Josef Danhauser (1780-1829). Danhauser was the leading furniture maker in Vienna at this time and had many royal patrons. Height: 29.53 in (75 cm), Width: 49.61 in (126 cm), Depth: 27.17 in (69 cm).
