Description

Rustic sideboard in Walnut wood,

France late eighteenth century.

Cabinet with four ashlar doors
and no drawer.

Half-round grooves typical of the Louis XVI style to decorate the pillars between the doors and the front legs.

Provençal-style arched feet and ashlar on the sides too.

Top with several signs of wear
which give the object a rustic and lived-in taste.

Inside one large divided compartment
halfway up a poplar wood shelf.

New locks, working with key.

Internally restored and shellac polished
and externally, with a wax finish.
