Description

The large formats of this painter are rare and the theme of the terrace with flowery columns overlooking the sea is very sought after.
Light filtered by the vegetation, intense blue horizon. Very nice knife painting.
Oil on canvas, perfect condition 122 x 50 cm
Unframed.
Mério Ameglio Born in Italy on October 4, 1897 (1970). He spent his childhood in the south of France where he trained as an autodidact in painting. His first canvases are as many views of the Mediterranean coasts. The subjects then evolve as the artist travels through the regions of France. He ended his life in Paris, settled on the heights of Montmartre.
