known today. However, he won the First Grand Prix de Rome for Engraving in 1896, and was appointed a member of the Commission des Monuments Historiques in 1906.
Print from prints published by the Société Septentrionale de Gravures, a company founded by Julien Deturck (1862-1941) , a renowned engraver from Bailleul, and Victor de Swarte, in 1900, its "exclusive aim was to popularize, through engraving or lithography, the artistic riches of the northern region of France (departments of the Nord, Pas-de- Calais and the Somme), as well as the contemporary works of artists from this region, and those that exist outside, in museums and collections. (Excerpt from the statutes of 1900). Although this Society mainly published engravings of interpretations of works by masters, it nevertheless published a few original engravings, most of the time countersigned, in limited editions (generally 300 copies in ordinary edition, some of them they have benefited from a print run of a few numbered copies on China or Japan).
We join the very rare captioned serpente (fold marks).
