Description

Petrarch and Laura etching aquatint
19th century
44 x 57,8 cm
17.32 x 22.75 inches.
In the studio of a painter (Simone Martini?) Laure is sat ready to have her portrait painted by a painter, probably Simone Martini, for we know that Martini was commissioned in 1336 to decorate in Avignon the «Palais des Papes» (Popes'Palace in Avignon) and that the same year Petrarch met him and asked him to portray Laure and himself.

This work has been restaured by a professional & accurate restaurer.Several tears in the topic, repaired.
