Description

A very beautiful antique earthenware salad bowl, exhibiting the stylistic characteristics of traditional Nevers ware. This is a substantial, generously sized piece, weighing 1.5 kg. The interior features a striking polychrome design centered around a geometric rosette, encircled by a wreath of stylized floral motifs. The composition is finished with a peripheral frieze of blue ovals, brown lines, and small green accents. The warm color palette combines blue-gray, green, yellow, orange, and brown. The exterior is entirely gadrooned, featuring elegant, uniform vertical fluting and a gently scalloped rim. The clay body visible beneath the base has a pinkish hue--a detail of particular interest for the study of this type of antique earthenware. The overall decorative scheme is exceptionally harmonious,
