Description

Luminaire with four lights in the Louis XV Style, Provençal work from the mid-19th century. Suspended by steel rings, hung by four turned wooden bobèches. With a decorative bobèche in its center. Two rows of spacers, nicely decorated with elements inspired by the vegetation of the Region, decorated with foliage and rosettes. All entirely pegged to the old. The lampshades are in pleated fabrics in an ocher red color, typical of Provence. Luminaire: height 85 cm x sides 35 cm
