Description

Lovely, complete and in very good condition, opening on the top by a lid mounted with a porcelain plate depicting a bird. Two bronze handles make it possible to remove this tray and discover a bare compartment with its zinc tray. Its belt is decorated on the front and back and surrounded by a beaded frieze. The set rests on four blackened wooden legs embellished with bronzes and connected by a crotch shelf in the center of which sits a superb porcelain vase decorated with nature and birds. Fine chains suspended between the bronzes bring lightness and elegance to the whole. Do not hesitate to visit our site and its many offers:
