Description

Art Deco period elephant lamp. The spelter elephants have their original patina, they have been cleaned and varnished. The curves of the moving animals present us with cracked and sandblasted glassware in relief, all enhanced by its opalescence. This light awakens the fine marble of Sainte Anne in shades of red, gray and white. The harmony of this lamp lies in a symmetry combining orientalism and colonialism, and refers us to past and future travel. Rare model. Screw bulb (15W appliance). Revised electricity. Possible delivery not included in the price.
