

Langeais Earthenware Square Planter Decorated With Bunches Of Grapes Th. 19th

320 EUR

Signature : Charles Heard de Boissimon

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Length : 15 cm

Width : 12,5 cm

Height : 12,5 cm

Description

Square Langeais earthenware planter decorated with vines and bunches of grapes 19th century
Period circa 1862 Underside in platinum Creamy white background with platinum highlights
Palisade motif and fixed handles made of knotted branches Very fine workmanship 2 large platinum bands highlight the decor Decor of bunches of grapes treated in the round and enhanced with platinum Interlacing of vine leaves Fleurettes at the corners Decor reminiscent that Charles de Boissimon was also a winegrower
Good general condition: slight wear of the platinum and 1 piece of the point glued h: 12 .5 cm long: 12.5 cm wide with handles: 15 cm
Inside the planter: 3 points placed in an equilateral triangle (discreet Masonic presence)
Piece from the collection of an enlightened

Dealer

Le Psyché d'Antan

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 05 53 71 86 42

Mobile : 06 82 47 25 03

Chamouveau - 711 route de l'église

Trentels 47140

amateur