Description

Vietnam, end of the 19th-beginning of the 20th century, very pretty wooden panel lacquered in black and inlaid with mother-of-pearl presenting a rich decoration of birds evolving in a vegetal environment in the upper part; characters, elephants, pagodas and again birds in the lower part. Work of very good quality combining elegance and preciousness. Height 50.5cm. Width 29.5cm. Good condition, no shock, no lack. Let's just specify that the panel is veiled; which is normal in relation to the seniority but without any impact on the beautiful aesthetics. We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. The shipment is made with insurance included.
