Description

The artist Catherine Dammeron was born in 1976 in Wissembourg in Alsace.

She made her passion for pastel drawing her job.

Artist going against the current, this resident of Yonne favors classical figuration and assumes this bias of old-fashioned drawing.

This trained portraitist likes to capture life, especially in the expression of the eyes. A keen sense of observation, which we could appreciate in his many portraits of North Africans, Africans and the many animals that surround him.
