Description

Pair of brass sheaths entirely chiseled with patterns of scrollwork, fleur-de-lys, stylized friezes. On each of these sheaths, the top rests on a large beaded cup. The square section shaft is sheathed downwards. It is embellished with decorations of ribbons, oak leaves, scrolls and chimera heads. This barrel rests on a pedestal with a vase delicately chiselled with a medallion. The set is fixed on a base worked in the same spirit and provided with four feet with acanthus leaves. These sheaths, which will appeal above all for their quality of manufacture, will highlight your most beautiful objects, vases or works of art.  Period: Mid-nineteenth Excellent condition.
