

Rare Earthenware Mustard Pot From Lille - Eighteenth Century

1 600 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Restauré

Material : Earthenware

Length : 10cm

Height : 12,5cm

Description

Rare mustard pot covered in earthenware from Lille, consisting of a convenience bucket on which is seated a man ,wearing a manganese hat and wearing a jacket with stylized flowers, his feet resting on a mound with a green background,the bucket bears the inscription in manganese: "my mustard is better than that of Dijon".High. : 12.5 cm - long. : 10cmEighteenth centuryThe fractured lower part is restored as well as a chip on the edge of the lid.Additional information and photos on request.

Dealer

Bils Ceramiques

Ceramic Specialist, Sales Purchase & Expertise

Mobile : 06.74.59.17.01

Lyon 69002