Description

Type of jewel: Ancient adornment Period: Early 19th century Origin: French work Metal: Gold 750/1000 (18 k) Guarantee hallmark: ram's head used in France from 1819 to 1838 Total weight (gross): 16.80 grams Length earrings: 7 cm Nature of the stones: Turquoises and pearls State of conservation: Very good state of conservation Comments: Between 1820 and 1840, the ornaments more particularly accompany ball outfits and are very often set with turquoises, amethysts or citrines. In most adornments, the jewelry is transformed: a pendant or bracelet turns into brooches, a pair of pendant earrings becomes two and the combs separate from the headband that surmounts them.
