HEXAGONS Renaissance Concepts offers you this lot of 62 m2 of tiles from the same source; the kitchens and outbuildings of a bourgeois property in the vicinity of Chateauroux, Berry. Carefully disassembled, these tiles have been sorted, scraped and all calibrated to 19cm x 19cm Without breakage or painting, they are ready to be replaced. Thickness of 2.5 to 3 cm - Reservation required from 6 to 8 cm. 32 pieces per m2. Approximately 50 kg per m2 Ideal for covering underfloor heating. The whole laid, tiles and mortar, serving as a heat catalyst for a long restitution ensuring energy savings. We would like to sell this lot as a whole. It is increasingly rare to find such large surfaces of the same origin. Contact us for more surface. In addition, we can offer you our help in carrying out a layout ensuring the enhancement of the place envisaged and allowing more surface area: laying in carpet with smooth edges in square tiles, laying in square modules, etc. To ensure a traditional installation - the only method that optimizes the final result - we offer you our installation advice from 30 years of experience in order to avoid any errors that could damage the desired aesthetic end. We will advise you on the best finish to plan to avoid any inconvenience in the future. As far as the particular installation of this floor is concerned, we can offer you to approach our specialist installers, Compagnons du Devoir, who know from experience how to guarantee installation according to the criteria necessary for this specific old product. Beware of the porosity of this terracotta made by hand more than two centuries ago. Only traditional methods of implementation ensure a perfect result.
