Description

In the 1880s, the publication of the SAF's illustrated catalogue required artists to send a drawing of the painting they wished to exhibit, so that an engraver could transfer it into the catalogue. The drawing presented here is an autograph, executed by the painter after his own work. Jean Baptiste Nisen, a student of Overbek in Rome, was a professor at the Academy in Liège. The Liège Museum owns a portrait of the first President, Joseph Grandgagnage; our drawing is based on this portrait. The drawing is signed in the lower left corner: JB Nisen.
