Description

Elegant bench from the Restoration period (early 19th century) in blond mahogany. It rests on 7 "saber" feet which ensures very good stability. The armrests are roll-up. This bench remains very modern by the simplicity of its lines of great sobriety. The top is mustard velvet, and the back covered with an upholsterer's fabric in good condition. The piece of furniture has been revised and varnished in the workshop. Seat height: 44 cm
