Description

Semainier composed of seven drawers of the same size whose facades are in mahogany burl veneer, deployed like an open book. Each of the drawers of this small piece of furniture has a discreet wall-mounted entrance accompanied by an original lock in working order and a later key. The bottoms, sides and backs of these drawers are in oak. This piece of furniture with pronounced veining and a warm color has uprights with cut sides and sides in grain mahogany veneer. In the lower part, a plinth whose top is grooved rests on small plate feet. Finally, the mahogany top has a perimeter composed of a groove, a square and a small corbin's beak below. This ideal-sized weekly organizer will also charm you with its numerous storage spaces and its sober lines.
