Description

Park or undergrowth painted with bright touches of green, yellow... in gouache on paper signed lower right. The painting is nicely framed with a gold wand and cream canopy. The painting is signed lower right. The painting is by Maurice MONTET "a self-taught painter is popular dear to the Rhône Alpes, who stood out for his talents as a draftsman from the age of 9. In his youth he worked as a mechanic in the merchant navy then in a fabric and furniture factory... at the age of 29 he really began his career as an artist and from 1934 he multiplied exhibitions in France and abroad. Critics salute an "unknown fauve", in the line of Toulouse-Lautrec and Utrillo... With a palette ranging from MONTET green to the bright yellows of fairground lights, to the midnight blue of skies, to black giving depth to
