Description

Huge illuminated sign 42 x 249 x 4cm intended for decorating food stores. Without lighting, it seems dull and does not let see much, but as soon as a ray of light crosses it it becomes a stained glass window to the glory of Provence with three characteristic sites: port of sinners, windmill and Camargue manade . Made of a decorated sheet of plastic, it is loaded with plastic grains on the reverse intended to diffuse the light like gemmails from the same period. Authentic formica frame (!) unfortunately a little damaged, a flow of blue paint across it, traces of wood-eating insects. Signature of the manufacturer and plate of the installer, a crosspiece split on the reverse An ideal decoration for the pool house of the swimming pool of a beautiful Provencal residence!
