

Large Ancient Ceramic Fish Dish Magna Grecia Apulia Campania Greek Italy IV Bc Greek Vase

3 800 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Diameter : 28

Height : 7

Description

Exceptional terracotta ceramic with a red figure decoration in reserve, black font and white highlights pattern of fish, cuttlefish and eels. surrounded on the edge by a laurel wreath typical of Magna Grecian productions Apulia / Campania 4th century BCDiameter 28 cmHeight 7 cmVery good condition : no glued accidentsnormal little miss and dirt given the ageExamples of this form are exhibited in major museums (Louvre, Naples, Metropolitan, Berlin, etc.)The Louvre has some several in its collections.an we can see an exemple in a grave reconstitution in Museo di Blanda (last photo) Rare collector's item in good condition

Dealer

Ars Longa

Fine Art ? Antique & After the Antique

Mobile : 06 30 55 85 75

14 Rue Beauregard

Paris 75002