Description

Portrait painted in gouache in miniature representing a beautiful young aristocratic woman.

Marked on the back Massé JB (1687-1767) and another name to the left of the clip that I cannot read.

Magnificent creation, the details are very fine and the whole is worthy of a renowned painter of the 18th century.

Probably painted in the 20th century and signed Lenotre lower right.

Small wear and losses as visible in the photos, the color is more realistic in the last photo.

The painting measures 7.5cm x 6cm at sight.
