Description

Oil painting on cardboard panel from the 50s and 60s by Balbino Giner representing a large bouquet of flowers. Work signed lower left by this Prix de Rome artist from Spain born in Valencia in 1910 and died in Collioure in 1976 where he lived. An endearing and talented artist, he was much appreciated for his works as well as for his original personality and his colorful life. Present in many, his work was recognized in particular by a retrospective at the Collioure museum. Very beautiful painting evoking a bouquet with very bright colors and very dynamic graphics characteristic of this great artist. Beautiful carved wooden frame 72 by 83 cm.
