Description

A. GUILLAUME (Active in the 1830s)
Watercolor 32.5 x 47 cm (60 x 74.5 cm with frame) Signed and dated lower left (on the rock) "A. Guill. / 1838 » Beautiful 19th century frame in carved and gilded wood
The subject of this watercolor is charming. A hunter rests at the edge of the woods while his hunting dog, a Brittany spaniel, leads guard over the game! This work was exhibited at the Paris Salon of 1839 by the artist under the title "Landscape and Still Life". It is signed "A. Guill. » which is certainly an abbreviation for A. Guillaume. In fact, in the General Dictionary of Artists of the French School by Emile Bellier de La Chavignerie there is an "A. Guillaume" who lives at the same address as the painter "A. Guill. » who exhibited in 1839, at 358 rue Saint-Honoré
