

Circular Porcelain Punch-ladle With Famille Rose Enamels - China 18th Century Qianlong Period

1 140 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 34,3cm

Description

Circular Punch-Ladle in porcelain with famille rose enamels, and its ebony wood handle. The porcelain is decorated with flowers and a lanceolate gold border. The interior of the ladle is decorated with a flower and the interior border with a golden frieze. The handle is made of turned ebony wood. The assembly is original.

China 18th century

Qianlong period (1735-1796)

Total length of the ladle: 34.3cm

Diameter of the porcelain body: 7cm

Height of the porcelain body: 4.4cm

Length of the handle: 25.2cm

Condition: slight wear to the gilding, 1 The end of the wooden handle has two pitting, the porcelain

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

32 Avenue de la République

Paris 75011

is in perfect condition, a small old nail is missing during assembly which does not affect it.

For an identical model, see Collecting Chinese Export Porcelain, Elinor Gordon, 1977, p.114

For an identical model, see Sotheby's sale January 23, 2010, Lot 28

More information and photos on request