Description

Louis XV style curved jumping chest of drawers from the 18th century in flower marquetry. It opens with 2 drawers on the front. Its flower marquetry is very fine and luminous. 2 flower vases garnish its 2 sides surrounded by a Greek net. Its veneer is rosewood with lemon wood decorations. Its 2 drawers are decorated with 2 cartridges surrounded by Greek nets and loaded with floral motifs at their centers. The decoration of gilded bronzes is rich, the falls of the feet are on the whole height up to the hooves. (falls, entrances, handles and bottom of the lamp are decorated with acanthus leaves) throat gray in color and white veined. It is mounted on a fir frame as traditionally in the 18th century. Its locks are from the period. Parisian work It was revarnished by our cabinetmaker and it is in
