

Pair Of Sterling Silver Salt Cellars, Edward Barnard & Sons, William IV Era, London 1834

570 EUR

Signature : Edward Barnard & Sons

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Diameter : 9,8

Height : 5

Description

Pair of large salt cellars
Sterling silver partially gilded (wear)
Goldsmiths Edward Barnard & Sons
London, William IV, 1834

Ø 9.8

H 5

W 272 (135 + 137)

- Goldsmith's mark (EEJW around a B) for Edward Barnard & Sons (Edward Jr, John & William)
- title mark (passing lion) for sterling silver
- city mark (leopard's head) for London
- date mark (letter t) for 1834
- profile of the sovereign (William IV)

Dealer

Thuriot Antiquaire

Passeur de patrimoine depuis 2005

Tel : 0041275588025

Mobile : 0041788665110

Rue du Grand-Pont 6

Sion 1950

Gadrooned model on three feet decorated with shell & staples, with leafy attachments; the hemmed edge very delicately chiseled with a frieze of water leaves and flowers.
The interior, formerly gilded, is worn.