Description

We present this pair of Medici-shaped vases on a pedestal Romantic period between 1830 and 1840 in pretty Paris porcelain. It is the quality of Jacob PETIT but unfortunately we do not find the trace of JP These vases are of undeniable quality and especially in an irreproachable state of conservation. They come from a large estate in the west of France so they have been pampered for almost 200 years. The porcelain sockets like the rest of the set are in the shape of character heads. The square bases are decorated with flowers and gilt patterns. I almost forgot the most important on one side of each of the two vases is a portrait of two women who may be related to the King of the time. (E23) Ref. ....
