Description

Pair of large harnesses with a height of 1.27 m in curved cherry wood, from the early 20th century. These harnesses with four trays rest on three legs joined together on a triangular, curved base. The trays have a different diameter from top to bottom: 35.4, 49.3 cm, 18.5 cm and 12 cm. The upper trays are protected by a glass plate. These very decorative harnesses can, thanks to their base, support heavy objects, such as bronze sculptures, ground width: 48 cm
