Description

ARCHES, FRAMES and DOOR PASSAGES :
RENAISSANCE CONCEPTS offers to replace, create or resize the entrance to your houses or the access to your garden with the addition of a frame steeped in history.

A simple passage from one room to another can become the original break between your daily life and your office, your reading room.

Your old house without gigantic work can become a place where you enjoy being, where finding yourself will take you from the simple necessity of staying in a place that you forget, to a space where you feel in tune with the place.

A place charged with the experience of the past.

A place that you will envy as you feel so good there.

Whether round or rectangular, simple or loaded with more marked sculptures, this centuries-old stone passage can be wide or smaller. It's up to you to define it.

RENAISSANCE CONCEPTS will offer you the passage you wish, the arch to your size and according to your budget without it costing you an eyeful!

Depending on the models, the sizes, the quality of the stone and the elegance of the proportions, an average price of EUR2,000 to EUR4,000 can be considered as the expense to provide you with quality frames.
