Description

Large and beautiful trumeau in verdigris and gold lacquered wood, richly decorated in the upper part with allegories of architecture and sculpture. The mirror is original, in two parts, in a gilded frame decorated with foliage, palmettes and rosettes. The whole is entirely in its period juice, in good condition and without any rework in gilding or lacquer. The parquet floor is also original and has never been opened. Remarkable piece of quality and very decorative. Dimensions: 200 x 78 cm
