Description

A late 19th century fireplace Napoléon III-Belle Epoque, made out of the Italian Néro Marquina and the consoles in Belgian Saint Rémy marbles. Emphasizing simplicity and (modern) élegance: This fireplace is made for that. The shelf is double moulded and has rounded corners. The white veins in this black marble brings relieve and movement to this fireplace. Fireplace is in perfect condition, no restorations has to be made. Will be delivered with its original marble frontfloor. Also in stock: Décor-tiles to finish the foyer, a perfect option if you wanna go for a real open fire or as a firebox-surrounding. Worldwide shipping. Delivery within Europe can be done by Antique Fireplaces First: 'In House Delivery'.
