Description

Peaceful rural scene, in a fresh and light style. A vast cloudy sky with touches of blue occupies the upper part of the work. A flowering tree clearly stands out in front of a church. We observe hens at the foot of the tree. Painting signed J. Lievin lower right. Very good condition, recently cleaned. Minor restorations not visible. Modern golden frame, very good condition. Eugène Galien-Laloue is a French painter and engraver born in Paris on December 11, 1854 and died in Chérence on April 18, 1941. He is famous for his Parisian urban landscapes. His work is also closely linked to the village landscapes of the Ile-de-France countryside. He painted landscapes of Normandy, Seine-et-Marne, Marseilles, Italy and Venice. The pictorial production of this artist, under his name or pseudonym, was plethoric. He
