Description

Painting on canvas, representing a grape harvest scene in the region of Castelnaudary, where the painter was apparently from. The subject represents a young man who, after harvesting the grapes, rests among the vines. The colors are rather pastel. The painting is dated 1963. The painter first monogrammed his painting at the bottom left then signed it at the bottom right and at the back on the canvas. Two tears are visible at the left rear of the canvas.
