Description

We present this interesting oil on canvas relating the Moulin rouge place Blanche in Pigalle by the painter Bruno Emile Laurent born in 1928, he is 95 years old today. Artist with different trades, butcher, riveter, car manufacturer and he became a cook in his own restaurants. He also took theater lessons and played as an actor alongside Jean Richard, who plays Maigret for TV. At the age of 45 he enrolled in the evening drawing classes of the city of Paris where he learned conscientiously, he took a few painting lessons and began to execute his own paintings which he exhibited at the Salon des Indépendants and the Salon des Artistes Français in 1987. He decides to open his studio gallery where he is still installed (source Art Price) and that makes him a personality of the Montmartre hill, he is
