Description

This 17th century cabinet is made of walnut, it opens on the front with two doors whose ornamentation is diamond-tipped, the sides have three panels. Although it has undergone some customary restorations, its cornices, locks and key are original, its feet have been grafted and the side panels reworked. Well preserved, it nevertheless underwent a repair, on an assembly of the back, which was not done according to the rules of the art, it is not irreversible and does not harm the aesthetics of the furniture and it has allowed its preservation until today. This beautiful piece of furniture that we are offering for a very low price is sold as is, it can be collected from us in Sologne, 20 km south of Orléans. If you wish, we can have a quote drawn up by a carrier to the desired destination. Height
